ARTICLE 1 – Institution

The University of Modena and Reggio Emilia hereby announces selection procedures for admission to the three-year PhD programmes listed in art. 16, which follows, for the XXXII cycle, Academic Year 2016/2017.

The actual activation of courses and registration are subject to the approval by the Ministry of Education, Higher Education and Research upon positive opinion expressed by the National Agency for the Evaluation of the University System and Research (ANVUR), as indicated in the Ministry Note prot.6363 of March 11, 2016 on the “Operative guidelines on the procedure of accreditation of PhD Programmes A.A. 2016-2017-XXXII cycle”.

Additional scholarships and positions may become available, even in the event that funding is provided by public or private bodies subsequent to the publication of this call for applications, but not after the publication date of the final rankings.

The number of scholarships may also be increased should ministerial funding (“Piano Giovani”) or regional funding (projects related to specific topics) become available throughout the project, and may be assigned to qualified ranked candidates without a scholarship or other types of incompatible funding, who have correctly registered by the deadline and in accordance with the regulations of this competition.

Those candidates who are awarded scholarships will be required to carry out the research projects assigned to them by the competent Board of the PhD Programme, with the exception of any changes as set by the authority.

Those candidates successfully ranked in the list of admitted students who, at the time of their enrolment on the Programme (as indicated in art. 7), express an interest in being considered for an apprenticeship contract for advanced training and research, may later be selected by the University, in conjunction with any interested firms, for such a contract, in accordance with art. 5, Legislative Decree no. 167/2011. Selection will be made on the basis of candidates' specific qualifications.

There will be positions reserved for industrial doctorate for employees of the companies listed in art. 16, within the sections relating to Courses.

A candidate holding an apprenticeship contract or industrial doctorate may not at the same time hold a university scholarship or other types of awarded funding, this includes scholarships awarded by foreign Countries or those awarded within specific mobility programmes.

Apprenticeship contracts can be concluded only by candidates who have not yet reached their thirtieth year of age at the time of signing the contract.

This call is equivalent to notification to all intents and purposes. Any changes, updates or additions to the content of this call will be announced, exclusively, on the following website: <http://www.unimore.it/didattica/dottorati.html>.

ARTICLE 2 - Admission requirements

The competition is open to any candidate, regardless of age or nationality, who as of October 31, 2016, holds an Italian degree obtained prior to D.M. 509/99 or an Italian second level degree (laurea specialistica, under D.M. 509/99 or laurea magistrale, under D.M. 207/04), or an equivalent academic qualification from a foreign University, that has to be validated by the Selection Committee, following the legislation in force both in Italy and in the Country where the qualification was issued and within the international treaties or agreements on the recognition of international qualifications, in the case where degrees in specific subjects are required for admittance to the Programme.

Candidates who have a foreign academic qualification must submit any relevant documents useful for verifying equivalency (degree certificate with exams, or description of the degree with a list of exams passed, by using Annex A2) to the Postgraduate Office (Via Università, 4, 41121 – Modena), attaching the documents to the application for admission using the online procedure described in Art. 3.

Candidates who complete their degree after the deadline for this call must submit a Degree certificate or the form in Annex A2 (in case of degree awarded by a foreign institution) or a self-certification to prove that the degree has been conferred (using the form in Annex A1, in case of degree awarded by an Italian University):

- in case of degree completed before enrolment: by enclosing the form with the enrolment application form,
- in case of degree not yet completed when enrolling in the PhD Programme: by submitting the form to the Postgraduate Office (Via Università, 4, 41121 – Modena), by and no later than, October 31, 2016, using one of the following methods: HAND DELIVERY during office hours (Monday and Wednesday from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m.; Tuesday and Thursday from 10:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.), or REGISTERED MAIL, or COURIER (the University Administration will recognise the date of receipt of the parcel and not the sending date) or FAX to +39 059/2056574 or E-MAIL to the address segr.postlaurea@unimore.it .

Italian nationals and foreigners holding a foreign academic qualification must submit their degree certificate with a list of exams taken, along with an Italian translation, an authentication, and a “declaration of validity” (“dichiarazione di valore in loco”) issued by the competent Italian consular or diplomatic representative for the country, in accordance with current admission regulations concerning foreign students, to the Postgraduate Office, by and no later than, December 31, 2016, using one of the methods described above.

Further information is available at www.istruzione.it - “University” – “Foreign students”. The University reserves the right to exclude from the competition any candidate who has not submitted the required documents by the deadline cited above without a justified reason.

Candidates who already have a scholarship from a foreign state on October 31, 2016 may take part in the selection process for positions reserved to applicants with a scholarship from foreign States.

Candidates who will be awarded the scholarship from a foreign State after the application deadline for this call must submit the following documents and failure to comply will result in exclusion:

- candidates who receive the scholarship prior to enrolment will attach the document proving that the scholarship has been awarded during the registration process ;
- candidates who have not yet received the scholarship at the time of enrolment will submit the document proving that the scholarship has been awarded to the Postgraduate Office (Via Università, 4, 41121 – Modena), by no later than October 31, 2016, using one of the following methods: HAND DELIVERY during office hours (Monday and Wednesday from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m.; Tuesday and Thursday from 10:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.), or REGISTERED MAIL, or COURIER (the University Administration will recognise the date of receipt of the parcel and not the sending date) or FAX to +39 059/2056574 or E-MAIL to the address segr.postlaurea@unimore.it .

Candidates who, at the date of the deadline of this call, are employed by the companies listed in Art. 6 within the sections relating to PhD Programmes, may take part in the selection process for industrial doctorates. For the purposes of registration to the Programme, suitable candidates must have a permanent or fixed-term contract of employment; in the case of fixed-term contracts, the duration of the contract, which is not relevant for the purposes of admission to the selection procedures, must in any case cover at least the official duration of the Programme (1 November 2016 – 31 October 2019).

The information sent by candidates will be carefully checked by the competent offices in order to verify correctness.

Admission of candidates to the competition is conditional upon verification of the aforementioned requirements.

ARTICLE 3 – Admission applications

Applications for admission to competitions and any required enclosures must be submitted following the online procedure by the final deadline of June 30, 2016, at 1:00 p.m. (local time), when the competition closes. Candidates failing to comply will not be considered.

Candidates interested in a PhD Programme must submit an admission application, with a request to take part in the relevant selection procedure.

Candidates interested in more than one PhD Programme must submit a separate admission application for each individual Programme.

Candidates interested in applying for more than one selection procedure must submit the application forms for each of the selections in which they want to take part. This applies in case of PhD Programmes where there are more than one selection procedures (as indicated in art. 16 in the paragraphs related to each Programme), because of the different types of available reserved places.

Admission applications and any required enclosures (academic qualifications, documents and publications considered useful for competition purposes) must be submitted to this Administration before the final deadline for the competition, using the following method only:

- by Internet, on the University website <http://www.esse3.unimore.it/Home.do> (new users must register by selecting “Registration”; those who have already registered should select “Login” and proceed with the following steps: insert username and password, and then, in the Student area, select “Admission” – “Admission Exams” – “Ph. D.”);

All academic qualifications, documents and publications considered useful for the application procedure must be attached in .pdf or .rtf file form with a maximum size of 20 MB. Attachments larger than 20 MB must be divided into smaller files.

Each application must refer to a single selection procedure and will require a payment of € 25.00, not refundable, to cover administrative costs. Therefore, candidates wishing to apply to more than one selection procedure must submit a separate application and the € 25.00 fee for each selection procedure.

Payment must be made using one of the following methods:

- 1) on line by credit card;
- 2) at any bank throughout Italy (including automatic teller machines, via telephone banking or Internet banking for those banks providing such services), using the special payment slip in MAV (mediante avviso) bank format printed out at the end of the admission application procedure.

The payment of € 25.00 must be made before June 30, 2016.

Candidates must keep the payment receipt for € 25.00. First year candidates should instead enclose it with the enrolment application form before the deadline and in accordance with the terms and conditions in art. 7

The application for admission will be considered to be correctly filed only by saving the data (“Save the data”) after the “Explicit confirmation of the validity of the application” given by the candidate at the end of the online procedure mentioned above.

Before the data saving (“Save the data”) that follows the “Explicit confirmation of the validity of the application”, and prior to the deadline for the competition, candidates may add, change or remove attached academic qualifications, documents and publications using the abovementioned website. The procedure is as follows: select “Login”, insert username, password, and then, in the Student area, select “Admission”).

After the data saving (“Save the data”) that follows the “Explicit confirmation of the validity of the application”, in the case of errors or incomplete insertion of attachments using the online procedure, candidates will only be able to send this information on an optical disk (CD-ROM or DVD), along with the signed application for admission and a photocopy of a valid identity document, before the final deadline of the competition (June 30, 2016, at 1:00 p.m.), to the Postgraduate Office (Via Università, 4, 41121 – Modena). One of the following methods may be used: HAND DELIVERY during office hours Monday from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m.; Tuesday and Thursday from 10:00 a.m. to 1:00 pm or REGISTERED MAIL, or COURIER (the University Administration will recognise the date of receipt and not the date of sending). In the case where attachments on optical disk are not received before the deadline, and in the manner indicated, only the documents included online will be evaluated.

Applications and supporting enclosures may not be submitted by e-mail or fax.

In the event of any technical and/or operating difficulties, please write to the following e-mail address: webhelp@unimore.it.

Admission applications, submitted in accordance with the indications given above, will be considered valid only if they reach this Administration before the final deadline.

Therefore, any applications arriving after the deadline, or not submitted in accordance with above requirements, will not be considered.

As part of the procedural information in making the application, the candidate takes personal responsibility for declarations in relation to:

- a) name and surname;
- b) place and date of birth;
- c) residential address, telephone/cell number, elected domicile for the purposes of this competition, and e-mail address;
- d) tax identification number ("codice fiscale"- if candidates have one. Candidates who do not have a tax identification number need only to confirm the one that will automatically be assigned to them by the system);
- e) citizenship;
- f) possession of an Italian old ordinance degree or second level degree (laurea specialistica or laurea magistrale), or an equivalent academic qualification issued by a foreign University;
- g) the exact title of the PhD Programme chosen by the candidate;
- h) knowledge of a second foreign language (either French, German or Spanish), in addition to English;
- i) curriculum vitae;
- j) academic qualifications and any other documents;
- k) publications;
- l) in the case of candidates with special needs, any accommodations required for taking the examinations, in accordance with Law no. 104 of February 5, 1992;

By submitting the application, the candidate agrees:

- 1) to attend the PhD programme on a full-time basis, in accordance with the conditions established by the Teaching Committee;
- 2) to notify the University immediately of any changes in residence or address;
- 3) in the case of Italian nationals or foreign citizens holding a foreign degree, to send the degree certificate, with a list of exams taken, along with an Italian translation, an authentication and "declaration of validity" issued by a competent Italian diplomatic-consular representative for the country, in accordance with the regulations governing the admission of foreign students to Italian university degree courses, by the final deadline of December 31, 2016;
- 4) in the case of candidates who complete their degree after the deadline for this call, but before October 31, 2016, to send their degree certificate or facsimile attachment A2 (if awarded by a foreign university) or a self-certification to prove that the degree has been conferred (if awarded by an Italian university, please use form in Annex A1), by the final deadline and in accordance with the conditions indicated in art. 2 of this competition. Candidates failing to comply will not be considered.

At any time, candidates may be officially notified of automatic exclusion from the competition for the following reason: failure to meet admission requirements, non-payment of the admission fee of €25.00 within the deadline indicated by the Administration.

Admission applications will not be considered for any of the following reasons: submission or receipt of applications after the deadline or non-compliance with the procedural requirements of the competition.

The Administration cannot be held responsible for any loss of correspondence due to the following situations: incorrect contact details, failure or delay in notification of a change in address, technical errors, negligence of third parties, or a force majeure. Furthermore, the Administration shall assume no responsibility for attachments not received as a result of third-party involvement, faulty attachment of documents by the candidate, or any type of network failure.

ACADEMIC QUALIFICATION CERTIFICATES, DOCUMENTS AND PUBLICATIONS:

Candidates with any academic qualification certificates, documents or publications considered useful for the purposes of the competition procedures must attach the following certificates, documents and publications, except in the cases stipulated in Art. 16, for each Programme:

- 1) (for candidates holding an Italian degree) a self-certification to prove to meet the requirements (using the form in Annex A1) in accordance with articles 46 and 47 of the Presidential Decree 445/2000;
- 2) (for candidates holding a foreign degree) degree certificate indicating exams taken, or a description of the degree with a list of exams taken together with a statement of truth of the certificates attached, by means of a self-certification in accordance with Articles 46 and 47 of the Presidential Decree 445/2000 using Annex A2;
- 3) scanned copy of a valid identity card or passport;
- 4) curriculum of research and teaching activities;
- 5) academic qualification certificates and documents considered useful for the purposes of evaluation with corresponding list;
- 6) letter/letters of recommendation (in accordance with the form in Annex B of this call);
- 7) academic publications with corresponding list;
- 8) document in which the candidate expresses his or her interest in one of the curricula within the PhD programme, provided they are indicated in Art. 16 in the sections dedicated to each Programme. This is purely for information purposes and therefore not binding;
- 9) document in which the candidate expresses his or her interest in applying primarily for one or more reserved places, where provided and mentioned in art. 16 in the sections related to each PhD Programme (by completing Annex E1 or E2 or E3). Should the programmes have different types of reserved places the candidate may express interest for a single type of reservation.

Under article 15 of Law no. 183 of November 12 2011, certificates regarding personal qualities, status and facts issued by the public administration can be only used for private purposes. Self-certification, under articles 46 and 47 of Presidential Decree 445/2000, can replace attested declarations for public administration or public services purposes.

Publications in languages other than Italian, English, French, German or Spanish, or which do not include a summary in one of the abovementioned languages, must be produced in the original language and translated into Italian.

Certificates issued by the competent authorities of the foreign candidate's country of citizenship must comply with the provisions in force in the same country. Certificates in a language other than Italian, English, French, German or Spanish, must also be translated and authenticated by the competent Italian diplomatic or consular authorities.

An Italian translation must be attached to all documents written in a language other than Italian, English, French, German or Spanish and must be certified as conforming to the foreign text by a competent Italian diplomatic authority or an official translator.

Printed documents and those on optical disks (CD-ROM or DVD), sent in accordance with articles 2 and 3, can be picked up at the Postgraduate Office from June 5 to July 31, 2017.

Printed documents, CD-ROMs and DVDs will not be available for pick up after the abovementioned deadline.

ARTICLE 4 – Selection Committee

Each committee responsible for the evaluation of candidates will be appointed by a Rector's decree and composed of three permanent members and one or more substitute members. They will be selected from the University's tenured professors and researchers. A maximum of two Italian and/or foreign experts may be chosen from public and private research bodies or institutions.

ARTICLE 5 – Admission procedures

The selection procedure and schedule of examinations, where applicable, are indicated in art.16, in the sections relating to each PhD Programme.

Where specified in the selection procedure, the required interview will include a language proficiency test in English and in another optional foreign language indicated by the candidate at the time of application.

In the event of selection procedures requiring examinations or academic and research records and exams, candidates will be admitted subject to presentation of a valid identification document.

Candidates resident abroad may sit the interview using audio and video web conferencing methods (Skype), if such method is permitted in the section of each Programme. In this case, candidates must enclose Annex E4 with their online application.

During interviews held via Skype, at the start of the interview candidates must exhibit the ID document annexed to the Esse3 computerised procedure. Candidates must be connected to Skype at the time indicated in the sections specified for each PhD Programme.

The interview held via Skype will not be possible in the event of: non-notification of the candidate's personal Skype address, lack of internet connection, the absence of the candidate on the day and time set for the interview or the impossibility to exhibit a valid identity document. In the above cases, candidates holding a valid ID document shall be present on the day and at the time set for the "live" interview, if this has not already been held, in order to sit the oral examination; no dates other than those indicated in the sections of each PhD Programme are available. The University of Modena and Reggio Emilia declines all liability for any technical impediments to holding the interview via Skype.

In the case of assessment based on qualifications only, the Board may contact the candidates via audio and video web conference, (Skype) for an interview to discuss the materials submitted; in this case, candidates must include their Skype address in their curriculum. This interview will not lead to any additional score

ARTICLE 6 – Ranking

At the end of the selection process, each committee will publish a final merit-based list ranking the candidates.

The final merit list will be approved by a Rector's Decree, once all documentation has been declared valid.

Candidates will be admitted to Programmes according to their positioning on the merit list until all available places have been allocated for each PhD Programme.

The final rankings of candidates will be announced publicly exclusively by:

- publication on the University website at <http://www.unimore.it>, under: ("Academic programmes"/"Doctorate Programmes"), within the designated section for each PhD Programme.

Should a candidate qualify for a place in more than one ranking, he/she may register for only one PhD Programme.

Candidates may not enrol in a PhD Programme if they are already enrolled in another PhD Programme, Degree or Diploma Programme, Specialisation Programme (medical area excepted), Tirocinio Formativo Attivo (Teachers' Training Programmes) or Level I and II Master's Programme of the University of Modena and Reggio Emilia, or any other University.

Candidates in a position in the ranking list for admission to the PhD Programme may at the same time attend the programme and the last year of a Specialization School in medical area, in compliance with the following criteria:

- the joint attendance of the last year of the Specialization School and the PhD programme is permitted only when the place of attendance of both programmes is the same;
- students enrolled on the last year of the Specialization School can enroll on the PhD Programme, following art. 7, they will have to submit the no impediment form issued by Supervisory Committee of the Specialization School Committee decided on the compatibility with the commitment and the activities required by the School itself;
- admission to the second year will be decided by the PhD Programme Teaching Committee depending on the research activities carried out throughout the Specialization School when students attended both the PhD Programme and the Specialization School. Research activities have to be confirmed also by the Specialization School Committee;
- when students are attending both the Specialization School and the PhD Programme they cannot benefit from the PhD scholarship.

ARTICLE 7 – Enrolment

Within the mandatory ten-day time limit, starting from the day after the publication of the final rankings on the University Web site (as cited above in Art. 6), those candidates qualifying for a place on the merit list must enrol in the first year of the PhD Programme, using the method mentioned below. Failure to comply will result in the loss of right to admission.

- by internet:

through the University website at <http://www.esse3.unimore.it/Home.do> (select 'Login' and, using the username and password assigned by the system at the time of registration for the competition, or the one already held by students of the University of Modena and Reggio Emilia, follow the instructions in the Student area: "Enrolment" – "Enrolment according to ranking"; if an applicant has forgotten his/her username and password, assistance is available via email at webhelp@unimore.it).

Candidates will be asked to enclose the digital copy of the following documents:

- a) digital passport photo (in JPEG or BITMAP format);
- b) scanned copy an identity document, duly signed;
- c) scanned copy of the tax identification card;
- d) scanned copy of the receipt for the payment of € 25.00 required for participation in the competition, in accordance with art. 3;
- e) self-certification to prove the possession of a university degree (using the form in Annex A1 for Italian degrees or the form in Annex A2 for foreign degrees), in case of degree already awarded;
- f) in case of applicants with scholarship, Annex H “Declaration accompanying application for enrolment on a PhD Programme” - part 1 and part 2;
- g) in case of applicants without scholarship, Annex I “Declaration accompanying application for enrolment on a PhD Programme”;
- h) declaration of interest in a possible apprenticeship contract for advanced training and research to be drawn up in accordance with art. 5, Legislative Decree No. 167/2011 in conjunction with any interested firms (using Annex F). This is purely for information purposes and is, therefore, not binding;
- i) (in case of students of specialization schools in the medical area) a written permission issued by the Specialization School Committee, following previous art. 6.
- j) (in case of students awarded a position reserved for applicants with a scholarship from a foreign State who obtained the scholarship before registration) the document proving possession of the scholarship;
- k) (in case of students awarded a position reserved for applicants for the industrial doctorate) the copy of their job contract or a declaration by their employer or self-certification under articles 46 and 47 of Presidential Decree 445/2000 regarding the type and length of contract, in accordance with article 2 of this Call. Candidates not already in possession of the above documentation must submit it by 31 ottobre 2016 via e-mail to segr.postlaurea@unimore.it

Please note that the mere completion of the online form is NOT sufficient for enrolment. PhD students with scholarships must first pay the single tuition payment while PhD students without scholarships must make their first tuition payment by the aforementioned deadline date (i.e. within ten days of the publication of the rankings). Failure to comply within this deadline will result in exclusion from the PhD program.

Payment must be made at the end of the enrolment procedure using one of the following methods:

- at any bank throughout Italy (including automatic teller machines, via telephone banking or Internet banking for those banks providing such services), using the special payment slip in MAV (mediante avviso) bank format printed out by selecting “Stampa Domanda di Immatricolazione” (“Print Enrolment Application”);
- on line by credit card by selecting “Tasse” (“Taxes”).

The print copy of the enrolment application and receipt of payment must be kept by the applicant and not submitted to the Office.

Candidates gaining their academic qualification after the date of enrolment must submit Annex 1 (if the qualification is conferred in Italy) or Annex 2 (if the qualification is conferred abroad) to the Postgraduate Office (Via Università n.4, 41121-Modena) no later than October 31, 2016, using one of the following methods: HAND DELIVERY during office hours (Monday and Wednesday from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m.; Tuesday and Thursday from 10:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.), or REGISTERED MAIL, or COURIER (the University Administration will recognise the date of receipt of the parcel and not the sending date) or FAX to +39 059/2056574 or E-MAIL to the address segr.postlaurea@unimore.it.

Italian nationals and foreigners holding a foreign academic qualification must present their degree certificates with a list of exams taken, along with an Italian translation, and a “declaration of validity” (“dichiarazione di valore in loco”) provided by the Italian Consulate or diplomatic representative for the country concerned, to the Postgraduate Office no later than December 31, 2016, using one of the following methods: HAND DELIVERY during office hours (Monday and Wednesday from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m.; Tuesday and Thursday from 10:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.), or REGISTERED MAIL, or COURIER (the University Administration will recognise the date of receipt of the parcel and not the sending date) or FAX to +39 059/2056574 or E-MAIL to the address segr.postlaurea@unimore.it.

Successful applicants for reserved positions for students with scholarships from foreign States who have not received the scholarship at the time of must submit documentation proving that they hold a scholarship to the Postgraduate Office (Via Università n.4, 41121-Modena) no later than October 31, 2016, using one of the following methods: HAND DELIVERY during office hours (Monday and Wednesday from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m.; Tuesday and Thursday from 10:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.), or REGISTERED MAIL, or COURIER (the University Administration will recognise the date of receipt of the parcel and not the sending date) or FAX to +39 059/2056574 or E-MAIL to the address segr.postlaurea@unimore.it.

As soon as the registration procedure has been completed, all recipients of scholarships must register with the I.N.P.S. Separate Management Fund (“Gestione Separata”) and forward a self-certification to prove registration (using ANNEX G “Self-certification of subscription to Gestione Separata Inps”) to the Salaries Office (“Ufficio Contabilità”) by November 15, 2016, by fax to +39 059/2057109 or by sending a scanned copy to via e-mail ufficiostipendi@unimore.it. If PhD students are already registered with the I.N.P.S (Italian Social Security Institute) Separate Management Fund as a result of previous collaboration with other institutions, they merely need to forward the self-certification confirming the registration with the I.N.P.S (by fax as indicated above).

Foreign citizens who do not yet have a tax identification number must apply to the “Agenzia delle entrate” (Italian Revenue Agency) upon arriving in Italy and must forward a copy of the card issued by the Agency before November 15, 2016, to the Postgraduate Office, by fax at +39 059/2056574 or by sending a scanned copy via mail to segr.postlaurea@unimore.it.

For information and assistance concerning the Tax ID code, housing, residence permit, registration with the I.N.P.S. Separate Management Fund (“Gestione Separata”), foreign nationals may submit a request to the International Welcome Desk Office, at: internationalwelcomedesk@unimore.it.

Any candidates who have not completed their enrolment in accordance with the terms and conditions indicated above will be considered as withdrawn.

Candidates issuing false statements will be withdrawn.

The university administration reserves the right to ask enrolled students to complete the enrolment documentation if incomplete and/or to provide payment receipt of the single or first instalment.

Any remaining places will be assigned to alternate candidates, according to their positioning on the final merit list.

Vacant reserved places can be filled by other selected candidates or, when there are more than one selection procedures, they will be added to the number of available places of the main selection.

ARTICLE 8 – Reassignment of Places.

In the event of vacancies, eligible candidates will be contacted by e-mail and will be invited to enrol, in accordance with the requirements indicated in the preceding article, within four days from the time of receipt of the email. Failure to comply will result in loss of the right to admission.

The procedure will be considered complete within 90 days from the day the list of admitted candidates for the academic year 2016/2017 is posted on the University Web site, under art. 6.

ARTICLE 9 - Scholarships

The number of study scholarships assigned is indicated in art. 16 and these scholarships will be awarded according to the positioning of candidates on the final merit list.

In the case of candidates of equal merit, a decision will be made on the basis of the candidates' financial situation, determined in accordance with the Italian Prime Minister's Decree of April 30, 1997 and subsequent amendments. Candidates of equal merit will be requested by e-mail to submit for the purposes of evaluating their financial situation:

- Receipt of submission of the Single Sworn Declaration for calculating the ISEE bracket (DSU); this must be forwarded within the final deadline of four days from the day the e-mail was sent. Failure to comply will result in loss of the right to admission.
- The formal I.S.E.E. (Indication of Equivalent Financial Situation) by I.N.P.S.; this must be forwarded within the final deadline of ten days from the day the e-mail was sent. Failure to comply will result in loss of the right to admission.

The annual amount of a study scholarship is € 13,638.48 (barring subsequent regulatory amendments) and is subject to the I.N.P.S. social security contribution under the separate management fund.

Study scholarships are automatically renewed when PhD students continue in the following year, unless a motivated ruling to the contrary is made by the Teaching Committee.

Study scholarships will be paid in monthly deferred instalments.

PhD scholarships cannot be combined with other scholarships or other forms of financial assistance paid by the University and/or the State, with the exception of those designed to be integrated with PhD student research activities, for periods spent abroad.

Scholarship amounts will be increased by 50% for periods spent abroad of no longer than 18 months.

ARTICLE 10 - Fees for PhD Programmes

Fees for scholarship recipients are structured in a single instalment; these fees for the first year are payable at the time of enrolment. The amount of the payment slip downloadable on line will be: € 156.00 (it includes both the regional fee of € 140.00 and the revenue stamp of € 16.00).

Fees for PhD Programmes, payable by non-scholarship recipients, are structured according to a progressive scale, with a minimum and maximum limit, as specified in the Financial Aid Application procedure provided by the Regional Agency for the Right to Higher Education – District headquarters of Modena and Reggio Emilia.

Payment of these fees for the first year is divided into three instalments:

- the first instalment, which is the same for all the candidates, is payable at the time of enrolment; the amount of the payment slip downloadable on line will be: € 452.45 (it includes the regional fee € 140.00, the first instalment of € 296.45 and the revenue stamp of € 16.00);
- the second instalment, which is as well the same for all candidates, has to be paid by January 31, 2017 (the amount of the payment slip downloadable on line and available from February is € 500.00);
- the third instalment, payable by March 31, 2017 (remaining amount depending on the fee bracket assigned to the PhD student by the Financial Aid Office, subject to submission of a special application, in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Financial Aid Application procedure.)

In the event of late payment of the second and third instalment, the PhD student will be required to pay a surcharge of € 30.00 (if the payment of the overdue instalment is made within 15 days following the deadline) or € 70.00 (if the payment of the overdue instalment is made 16 or more days following the deadline).

The methods for allocation of scholarships granted by the Regional Agency for the Right to Higher Education are currently being defined. Refer to the Call for Applications for Benefits for details.

Therefore, anyone intending to apply for one of the aforementioned scholarships and anyone wishing to be placed in a specific fee bracket must refer to the Financial Aid Application procedure of the Regional Agency for the Right to Higher Education – District headquarters of Modena and Reggio Emilia for the 2016/2017 academic year, available at www.unimore.it (selecting “Servizi” – “Diritto alla studio”).

Applications can be submitted:

- online application Er.Go for scholarships granted by abovementioned Regional Agency (fees total exemption): from July 14 to September 26, 2016;
- online application Er.Go only for partial exemption from fees: from July 14 to November 7, 2016.

Applications can be submitted even if not yet enrolled on a PhD Programme. Therefore, applications can be submitted even if the final rankings of candidates for admission to PhD Programmes have not yet been announced publicly.

For information on fees total or partial exemption, candidates may contact the Er.Go Offices: phone +39 051/6436900 (Call Centre) – “Ergo risponde” <http://www.ergo.it/fileadmin/include/faq/index.php> - Financial Aid Office: servizi.studenti@unimore.it

If a PhD student fails to submit a financial aid application, he/she will automatically be assigned to the last fee category in the application procedure indicated in this article (in this case the amount of the third instalment will be € 522.26).

For graduate students awarded with places reserved for industrial doctorate, the fees for participation in the PhD programme is covered entirely by the enterprise for which they work and will be paid directly by the company to the University, at the request of the latter.

Students awarded with places reserved for holders of scholarships from foreign States and Student awarded with place reserved for scholarship of specific international mobility program "Bando Vinci 2016" should make the payment of fees with the amounts and in the manner and time allowed as indicated above by the call for regular enrolment in a PhD.

PhD students with an “apprenticeship contract for advanced training and research” will have to pay the fees, following the above mentioned procedures and within the deadline set by the call as for regular enrollment on the PhD Programme.

Pending confirmation by the Emilia-Romagna Region of the Agreement Protocol on apprenticeship contracts for advanced training and research, we inform you that the contribution for the PhD cycle for last year (XXXI cycle) was set at 2.500,00 for each year of the course and this figure was met completely by the Emilia-Romagna Region, that will pay it directly to the University of Modena and Reggio Emilia in the name and on behalf of the apprentice.

The Postgraduate Office will notify PhD students as soon as the abovementioned Protocol for the XXXII cycle of PhD programmes has been signed.

If the Protocol is confirmed, we inform you that:

- these fees will be entirely covered by the Emilia-Romagna Region, which will directly pay the University of Modena and Reggio Emilia on behalf of the students;
- the University will only refund the money to the PhD student once it has received payment from the regional authority;
- should the amount paid by the regional authority be higher than the one that paid by the student, the remaining amount will be kept by the University to cover expenses related to the PhD Programme;
- should the regulations set for the “apprenticeship contract for advanced training and research” not be observed and the regional authority thus fail to cover the fees, the University will not refund students.

The amounts, the number of instalments and the deadlines for the contribution for the following years will be determined from year to year and will be notified on the web page <http://www.unimore.it/didattica/dottorati.html> (approximately towards the end of July).

ARTICLE 11 - Rights and Responsibilities of PhD Students

PhD Programmes require a full-time and exclusive commitment. PhD students may accept forms of employment pending authorization from the PhD Programme Teaching Committee. For PhD students with scholarship, work activities must regard jobs directly pertaining to the PhD research area and should be formative in nature. Students without scholarship must also obtain authorization from the Teaching Committee though the right to support oneself economically will be taken into consideration. Research grants to PhD students without scholarships are allowed, provided the Teaching Committee deems the research area compatible with topic of the doctoral thesis. PhD students are required to perform the research projects assigned to them and to be involved in related study, further research, and teaching, as well as any internships affiliated with public or private bodies, in accordance with the requirements set by the competent Teaching Committee. Students who fail to comply may be withdrawn from the programme.

The other responsibilities and rights of doctoral students, including incompatibility, exemption from the obligation to attend, and the conditions of exclusion, as well as the procedure for awarding the PhD, are regulated by the provisions in art. 15 of this competition.

ARTICLE 12 – Public employees

In accordance with the law, upon submitting an application, public employees who are admitted to a doctoral programme, in keeping with administrative requirements, are granted a leave of absence for study purposes, without remuneration, for the duration of the programme, and will receive a research grant, where applicable. In cases where they are admitted to a PhD programme without a scholarship, or if they decline a scholarship, they shall be entitled to the remuneration, insurance, and pension contributions pertaining to the public body by which they are employed. In cases where the employment relationship with the public body is terminated by the employee within two years after the awarding of the PhD degree, the employee shall be required to reimburse the amounts of the abovementioned remuneration and contributions.

Public employees who have already earned a PhD or who have been enrolled in a PhD program for at least one year, thereby benefiting from a leave of absence, are not entitled to an additional leave of absence with or without remuneration.

The period of the leave of absence shall be taken into account for purposes of career advancement as well as insurance and pension entitlements.

ARTICLE 13 – Awarding of the PhD

The PhD is awarded upon completion of the PhD Programme, when students pass their final examination that consists in the presentation of a PhD Thesis on an original research, carried out meticulously and where results are adequately and scientifically relevant. Should the assessment be negative, the final examination cannot be repeated.

Thesis defense will take place before an Examination Board appointed in compliance with the University PhD Research Program Regulations.

The title of PhD is awarded by the Rector. The issue of the above title is dependent upon the candidate's submission of three copies of the final thesis to the competent office, two to be sent to the National Libraries of Florence and Rome respectively, and one (in electronic form) to the library of the Department sponsoring the PhD Programme. All doctoral theses will be digitally published in the "open access" archives of the University, "MoReThesis", which shall be responsible for assuring its conservation and availability to the public. All doctoral theses will be registered by the University in the ministerial database in compliance with the related legislation in force on copyright issues.

Upon completion of the PhD programme, graduates will be invited to fill out a "Questionnaire on the opinions of programme attendees" for the Alma Laurea database. This will enable the Alma Laurea Inter-University Consortium to monitor the training of doctoral students.

ARTICLE 14 – Handling of personal data

The University Administration, in accordance with Legislative Decree 196/2003, will use the applicant's personal data solely for the fulfilment of the selection procedures and for administrative purposes.

In accordance with the principles in Legislative Decree 196/2003, by participating in the competition, the candidate authorizes the University of Modena and Reggio Emilia to publish his/her personal data as well as information relating to the admissions examinations on the University website.

ARTICLE 15 – Additional Regulations

For matters not explicitly covered in this application procedure, refer to the provisions contained in art. 4 of Law no. 210 of July 3, 1998, art. 19 of Law no. 240 of December 30, 2010, Ministerial Decree no. 45 of February 8, 2013 and to the University regulations in force governing PhD Programmes and to the Teaching Regulations of the University of Modena and Reggio Emilia.

The Director responsible for overseeing all procedures is the Director of the Postgraduate Office (Dott.ssa Stefania Ianni - Via Università, 4 – Modena - phone +39 059/2056424 - e-mail: segr.postlaurea@unimore.it).

For further information, candidates may contact the Postgraduate Office - Via Università 4, 41121 Modena - phone +39 059/2056423 – fax +39 059/2056574 - e-mail: segr.postlaurea@unimore.it .

ARTICLE 16 – List of Doctorate Research Courses

1) PhD Programme in “CLINICAL AND EXPERIMENTAL MEDICINE (CEM)”

Places with scholarship: 7*

Places without scholarship: 1

Reserved places: 1 without scholarship for a candidate with a degree awarded by a foreign University.

*1 of which is dedicated to the memory of Prof. Paola Loria.

An extra place is reserved for a candidate already selected with specifically international mobility program in which the University of Modena and Reggio Emilia participates (Grant Agreement (GA) number 676 434 Relating to the Big Data Chemistry project, acronym BIGCHEM approved as part of the Horizon 2020 MSCA-ITN-EID - EUROPEAN INDUSTRIAL DOCTORATE 2015 Work Programme)

Admission requirements: Italian second level degree (laurea specialistica, under Ministerial Decree 509/99 or laurea magistrale, under Ministerial Decree 207/04) or Italian degree obtained prior to Ministerial Decree 509/99 or equivalent qualification obtained abroad, in accordance with the provisions in art. 2 of this application procedure.

Selection Procedure: based on academic and research record

The selection procedure is intended to establish the candidate's preparation and aptitude for carrying out research activities with respect to topics relating to the PhD Programme.

Except as provided by art. 3 of this application procedure, candidates may submit the following additional documents:

- 1) self-certification to prove that the degree has been conferred (if awarded by an Italian university), or Degree certificate (if awarded by a foreign university), with a list of exams taken and grades achieved;
- 2) Curriculum vitae of the scientific and teaching activities written in Italian or English indicating university qualifications held;
- 3) A summary of the final thesis in Italian or English, or equivalent, in a minimum of three and maximum of six pages organised under the following headings: subject of the thesis, research methodology, results obtained and their relevance for the study of mechanisms, diagnosis and therapy of human diseases;
- 4) A brief statement of no more than two pages written in English, outlining the motivation for attending the PhD Programme and a description of his/her areas of specific research interest (Statement of Research Interest);
- 5) Any certification attesting the knowledge of the English language (TOEFL, Proficiency or other);
- 6) Any GRE (Graduate Record Examination) certificates;
- 7) At least two letters of presentation written by professors of the institutions in which the candidate has been training/working;

- 8) Scientific activity or certified courses abroad;
- 9) Fellowships and stipends for research or higher education;
- 10) Names, affiliation and email addresses of one or more referees.

The Selection Committee has the capacity to assign scores up to a total of 60 points in the evaluation of candidate qualifications, as follows:

The reserved place of industrial doctorate will be allocated to the student reaching the best ranking position in the list of admitted students, among those who have applied primarily for the reserved place.

Areas of the PhD Programme: The Ph.D. course in Innovation Industrial Engineering consists of two different curricula: Engineering Management, Mechatronics and Energy Engineering. All two curricula share a strong orientation toward innovation processes. Further information is available from the PhD Programme website at: www.iii.unimore.it

4) PhD Programme “Enzo Ferrari” in INDUSTRIAL AND ENVIRONMENTAL ENGINEERING”

Places with scholarship: 10

Places without scholarship: 3

Reserved places:

- 1 for candidate with scholarships provided by foreign States;
- 1 without scholarship for a candidate with a degree awarded by a foreign University.

Reserved places for industrial doctorate:

- 3 employees of Energy Way srl, with registered offices in Modena, via Sant'Orsola n.37;
- 1 employee of Tetra Pack Packaging Solution spa, with registered offices in Modena (MO), via Delfini n.1.

Admission requirements: Italian second level degree (laurea specialistica, under D.M. 509/99 or laurea magistrale, under D.M. 207/04) or Italian degree obtained prior to D.M. 509/99 or equivalent qualification obtained abroad, in accordance with the provisions in art. 2 of this application procedure.

Selection Procedure: based on academic and research record

There are two different selection procedures for this PhD Programme, depending on the type of available places. Candidates interested to more than one selection procedures must submit the application form and a fee of € 25.00 for each selection procedure.

The selection procedures are intended to establish the candidate's preparation and aptitude for carrying out research activities with respect to topics relating to the PhD Programme.

Except as provided by art. 3 of this application procedure, candidates may submit the following additional documents:

- 1) list of exams taken, inclusive of related credits and grades;
- 2) self-certification to prove that the degree has been conferred (if awarded by an Italian university), or Degree certificate (if awarded by a foreign university), in both cases the final mark for the degree must be clearly indicated, as well as the maximum mark envisaged for this qualification by the University awarding the degree;
- 3) curriculum vitae of one's research and teaching activities written in Italian or English indicating higher education qualifications;
- 4) a summary of final thesis in Italian or English, or equivalent – minimum of three and maximum of six pages – organised under the following headings: statement of purpose, research methodology used, results obtained;
- 5) a short essay written in English – no longer than two pages – which illustrates the reasons why the candidate wishes to attend the PhD Programme and describes his/her specific research interests (Statement of Research Interest);
- 6) any certification attesting to knowledge of the English language (TOEFL, Proficiency or other);
- 7) any GRE (Graduate Record Examination) certificates;
- 8) any recommendation letters (maximum three) written by experts in the field of research of the PhD Programme, indicating the public or private institution/organization the expert is affiliated with.

Candidates who meet the requirements (employees of the enterprise) and wish to apply primarily for the reserved places, must fill in and attach to the online application form the facsimile "Annex E2" of this call.

The Selection Commission will examine the presentation of the above documents for those who have expressed their interest in competing primarily for the reserved place.

1) Main selection (for places with scholarships, places without scholarship, place reserved for candidate with a degree awarded by a foreign University, place for industrial doctorate): based on academic and research record.

The Selection Committee has the capacity to assign scores up to a total of 60 points in the evaluation of candidate qualifications, as follows:

- Curriculum and relevance to the topics of the PhD Programme: from 0 to 25 points,
- Master Thesis (topic and grade): from 0 to 25 points,
- Publications: from 0 to 5 points,
- Other qualifications: from 0 to 5 points.

Once the qualifications have been assessed, the Committee will compile a merit-based ranking of candidates based on the scores awarded. Candidates obtaining a minimum score of 36/60 will be considered eligible.

The reserved place of industrial doctorate will be allocated to the student reaching the best ranking position in the list of admitted students, among those who have applied primarily for the reserved place.

The reserved place for a candidate with a degree awarded by a foreign University will be allocated to the candidate reaching the best ranking position without scholarship.

2) Selection for place reserved to candidates with scholarship of foreign Countries: based on academic and research record

The Selection Committee has the capacity to assign scores up to a total of 60 points in the evaluation of candidate qualifications, as follows:

- Curriculum and relevance to the topics of the PhD Programme: from 0 to 25 points,
- Master Thesis (topic and grade): from 0 to 25 points,
- Publications: from 0 to 5 points,
- Other qualifications: from 0 to 5 points.

In assessment of academic and scientific qualifications account will be taken of the good basic knowledge of the topics of structural engineering, such as Science and Technical Engineering; the in-depth knowledge about the mechanical behavior of fiber-reinforced concretes; the ability to conduct and interpret the results of experimental programs based on compression, tensile and bending tests.

The Selection commission may contact with audio and video teleconference over the web, (Skype platform) candidates for a cognitive interview on the material presented; in this case the candidate must enter their Skype address in the curriculum. Such an interview does not involve extra score.

The Selection Committee will check the presentation of documentation proving that candidates hold a scholarship or that the application procedure for the awarding of the scholarship is underway.

Once the qualifications have been assessed, the Committee will compile a merit-based ranking of candidates based on the scores awarded. Candidates obtaining a minimum score of 36/60 will be considered eligible.

Areas of the PhD Programme: The course deals with subjects on Mechanical and Vehicle Engineering, Civil and Environmental Engineering and Materials Engineering.

The topics of those areas are:

For the Curriculum on Industrial and Environmental Engineering:

- Mechanical Engineering and Vehicle; issues on aspects related to the design of machines and systems, with particular reference to the skills associated with the thermodynamic, structural, technological, and functional aspects, and with thermal and structural optimization of the machines.

- Civil and Environmental Engineering; issues on topics related to seismic design, energy efficiency, dynamics of pollutants, hydraulics, geomatics, waste management, etc..
- Materials Engineering; issues on aspects related to the design and characterization of new and high-performance materials, study of materials and technologies related to Biomechanics and Bioengineering, etc.

For the Curriculum on Vehicle Engineering:

- Issues on all aspects related to the design, optimization and testing of components of the vehicle and of their ensemble. Theoretical, numerical and experimental analysis of motor-related issues, chassis, power supply, transmission, etc. Detailed studies on side issues such as vibration, mechanical stress, comfort in the vehicle, etc.

The Teaching Committee may propose to one or more students enrolled, considered suitable, a programme of study and research in collaboration with the Chinese University of Fuzhou that will result in the achievement also of the title of Chinese PhD in "Doctor in Engineering".

Further information is available on the PhD Programme website at: <http://www.phd-enzoferrari.unimore.it/site/home/research.html>

5) PhD Programme in “LABOUR, DEVELOPMENT AND INNOVATION”

Places with scholarship: 5 (1 of which are financed by the Ministry of Education, 1 by external public and private institutions, 3 by the University)

Places without scholarship: 2

Reserved places for industrial doctorate:

- 1 employee of Coxa spa, with registered offices in Modena, via Raimondo della Costa n. 600;
- 2 employees of Fondazione Brodolini, with registered offices in Roma, via Solferino n. 32;
- 1 employee of Fondazione Democenter-Sipe, with registered offices in Modena, via Vivarelli n.2;

Reserved places for candidate with scholarships provided by foreign States: 1

Admission requirements: Italian second level degree (laurea specialistica, under D.M. 509/99 or laurea magistrale, under D.M. 207/04) or Italian degree obtained prior to D.M. 509/99 or equivalent qualification obtained abroad, in accordance with the provisions in art. 2 of this application procedure.

Selection procedure: There are two different selection procedures for this PhD Programme, depending on the type of available places. Candidates interested to more than one selection procedures must submit the application form and a fee of € 25.00 for each selection procedure.

The selection procedures are intended to establish the candidate's preparation and aptitude for carrying out research activities with respect to topics relating to the PhD Programme.

For the purposes of assessment, candidates are required to submit an application together with a research project outline, in Italian or English, relating to one of the two curricula of the PhD Programme. Applications should be supported by at least one academic reference, or by business or labour market experts.

Candidates are required to have a knowledge of English.

The research project outline shall not be binding on the Teaching Committee for the purposes of assigning dissertation titles.

Except as provided by art. 3 of this application procedure, candidates are required to submit the following additional documents:

1) self-certification to prove that the degree has been conferred (if awarded by an Italian university), or Degree certificate (if awarded by a foreign university), with a list of exams taken and grades achieved;

2) CV based on the form in attachment C herewith, available on the website of the Marco Biagi Foundation <http://www.fmb.unimore.it/on-line/en/home/training/doctoral-research-school/admission-procedures.html>;

3) copy of the research project outline, written in Italian or English. This outline should be no more than 15,000 typed characters, including blank spaces, written in accordance with the form in attachment D herewith, available on the Marco Biagi Foundation website <http://www.fmb.unimore.it/on-line/en/home/training/doctoral-research-school/admission-procedures.html>;

4) reference signed by one academic or researcher or expert in the field of labour law, or other professional in the field of labour relations, based on the form in attachment B herewith, available on the Marco Biagi Foundation website <http://www.fmb.unimore.it/on-line/en/home/training/doctoral-research-school/admission-procedures.html>;

5) any academic publications along with a list of these publications.

The research project may be freely chosen by the candidate within the disciplinary areas of the PhD Programme, as specified on the website of the Marco Biagi Foundation (<http://www.fmb.unimore.it/on-line/en/home/training/doctoral-research-school/research.html>).

Candidates who meet the requirements (employees of the enterprise) and wish to apply primarily for the reserved place of industrial doctorate, must fill in and attach to the online application form the facsimile "Annex E2" of this call.

The Selection Commission will examine the presentation of the above documents. The reserved place of industrial doctorate will be allocated to the student reaching the best ranking position in the list of admitted students, among those who have applied primarily for the reserved place

1) Main selection (for places with scholarships, places without scholarship and places reserved for industrial doctorate): based on academic and research record and interview.

The Selection Committee has the capacity to assign scores up to a total of 60 points in the evaluation of candidate qualifications, as follows:

- Degree final mark, if already achieved, and grades reported in exams: from 0 to 15 points
- Publications: from 0 to 5 points,
- Research project: from 0 to 25 points,
- Postgraduate and/or professional teaching and training in the research field, as included in the CV: from 0 to 10 points,
- Foreign language skills in the CV: from 0 to 5 points.

Candidates awarded at least 40/60 in the assessment of academic and research record will be admitted to the interview.

The interview will focus on the research methods to be used and the research objectives, as indicated in the project, and on the reasons that led to the research.

A pass is achieved where candidates are awarded a score of 40/60 or above in the interview.

The list of candidates admitted to the interview and any variations in the methods and terms of the selection procedure will be announced publicly in a date between the July 18 and 19, 2016 on the University website at <http://www.unimore.it/didattica/doctorates.html> in the section relating to the PhD Programme in Labour, development and innovation. Candidates may opt to have their interview in English.

2) Selection for place reserved to candidates with scholarship of foreign Countries: based on academic and research record

The Selection Committee has the capacity to assign scores up to a total of 60 points in the evaluation of candidate qualifications, as follows:

- Publications: from 0 to 10 points,
- Research project: from 0 to 30 points,
- Postgraduate and/or professional teaching and training in the research field, as included in the CV: from 0 to 15 points,
- Foreign language skills in the CV: from 0 to 5 points.

The Selection Committee will check the presentation of documentation proving that candidates hold a scholarship or that the application procedure for the awarding of the scholarship is underway.

Once the qualifications have been assessed, the Selection committee will compile a merit-based ranking of candidates based on the scores awarded. Candidates obtaining a minimum score of 40/60 will be considered eligible.

Areas of the PhD Programme: The Doctorate is organized in two curricula (Labour; Development and Innovation).

The curriculum "Labour" is mainly focused on: functional flexibility and productivity; subsidiary welfare systems (company welfare, social welfare, contract welfare); work-life balance; values and regulatory techniques of labour; forms of labour representation; labour market and new contractual schemes; health and safety at work, well-being and work-related stress; collective bargaining and transnational solidarity.

The "Development and Innovation" curriculum focuses on: innovation and economic development; financial innovation; local development; company innovation; start-up; managerial and financial tools for company growth.

Further information is available on the website of the PhD Programme at the following address <http://www.fmb.unimore.it/on-line/en/home/training/doctoral-research-school.html>.

PhD students are required to perform the research projects assigned to them and to be involved in related study, further research, and teaching, as well as any internships.

PhD students will carry out the activities at the "Biagi" Foundation and the other locations identified for this purpose, in accordance with the requirements unilaterally set by the competent Teaching Committee.

The Faculty Committee responsible reserves the right, in its irrevocable technical opinion, to assign the activities to the candidates based on their individual specific qualifications.

EXAM SCHEDULE

Interview in the presence: July 25, 2016, 3:00 pm. Interviews could continue on July 26, 2016 at 9:00 am, should there be a high number of candidates,

The examination will take place in Room 25 of the Marco Biagi Foundation, Largo Marco Biagi 10, Modena

Interview via Skype (for candidates resident abroad): July 25, 2016, from 3:00 pm to 6:00 pm. Interviews could continue on July 26, 2016 from 3:00 pm to 18:00 pm, should there be a high number of candidates,

The examination will take place in Room 25 of the Marco Biagi Foundation, Largo Marco Biagi 10, Modena

6) PhD Programme in “MATHEMATICS” in cooperation with the University of Parma and University of Ferrara

Places with scholarship: 9

Places without scholarship: 1

Admission requirements: Italian second level degree (laurea specialistica, under D.M. 509/99 or laurea magistrale, under D.M. 207/04) or Italian degree obtained prior to D.M. 509/99 or equivalent qualification obtained abroad, in accordance with the provisions in art. 2 of this application procedure.

Selection procedure: based on academic and research record

The selection procedure is intended to establish the candidate's preparation and aptitude for carrying out research activities in areas related to the PhD programme.

Except as provided by art. 3 of this application procedure, candidates must submit the following additional documents:

- 1) self-certification to prove that the degree has been conferred (if awarded by an Italian university), or Degree certificate (if awarded by a foreign university), with a list of exams taken and grades achieved; students who have not yet completed the final degree examination, must submit a list of exams taken and grades achieved;
- 2) curriculum of research and teaching activities in Italian or English indicating university qualifications held;
- 3) drafting of a research project to be carried out throughout the three years;
- 4) an abstract or report of the final thesis (defended or yet to be defended before the Board of Examiners) in Italian or English – maximum five pages – organised under the following headings: statement of purpose, research methodology used, results obtained;
- 5) any academic publications along with a list of these publications.
- 6) two Letters of presentation written by experts in the fields of this PhD course, indicating the public or private institution in which they serve as experts.

The Selection Committee has the capacity to assign scores up to a total of 60 points in the evaluation of candidate qualifications, as follows:

- Curriculum: from 0 to 10 points,
- Report of the final thesis (defended or yet to be defended before the Board of Examiners): from 0 to 20 points,
- Research project: from 0 to 20 points,
- Publications: from 0 to 5 points,
- Letter of presentation and Other qualifications: from 0 to 5 points.

The Selection commission may contact with audio and video teleconference over the web, (Skype platform) candidates for a cognitive interview on the material presented; in this case the candidate must enter their Skype address in the curriculum. Such an interview does not involve extra score.

Once the qualifications have been assessed, the Selection committee will compile a merit-based ranking of candidates based on the scores awarded. Candidates obtaining a minimum score of 30/60 will be considered eligible.

The title of the research project mentioned in the application form is not binding. Once admitted to the PhD Program a different title can be provided, in agreement with the Teaching Committee.

Areas of the PhD Programme: The Course is composed of a single curriculum in mathematics marked by an interdisciplinary and international approach to the research. The purpose is to provide the students with advanced mathematical instruments for a high level of study and research, by stimulating their ability in mathematical reasoning. The Course encourages and fosters international relationships, by promoting cultural exchanges with foreign Professors and by establishing periods of study abroad for the students.

The course is activated by the University of Modena and Reggio Emilia in agreement with the University of Parma and the University of Ferrara. For the XXXII cycle, the administrative office is the University of Modena and Reggio Emilia. Students will be placed in the research groups of the two partner universities according to the seat of the supervisor (tutor) that will be assigned by the Faculty Board.

At the end of the Programme the University of Modena and Reggio Emilia confers a joint degree with the University of Parma and the University of Ferrara.

Further information is available on the PhD Programme website at:
www.mathphd.unimore.it (under construction)

7) PhD Programme in “MODELS AND METHODS FOR MATERIAL AND ENVIRONMENTAL SCIENCES”

Places with scholarship: 5

Places without scholarship: 1

Admission requirements: Italian second level degree (laurea specialistica, under D.M. 509/99 or laurea magistrale, under D.M. 207/04) or Italian degree obtained prior to D.M. 509/99 or equivalent qualification obtained abroad, in accordance with the provisions in art. 2 of this application procedure.

Selection Procedure: based on academic and research record and interview

The selection procedure is intended to establish the candidate's preparation and aptitude for carrying out research activities with respect to topics relating to the PhD Programme.

Except as provided by art. 3 of this application procedure, candidates may submit the following additional documents:

- 1) self-certification to prove that the degree has been conferred (if awarded by an Italian university), or Degree certificate (if awarded by a foreign university), with a list of exams taken and grades achieved; students who have not yet completed the final degree examination, must submit a list of exams taken and grades achieved;
- 2) curriculum vitae of the candidate's research and teaching activities written in Italian or English indicating university degree qualifications obtained;
- 3) a summary of final thesis in Italian or English, or equivalent – minimum of two and maximum of three pages – organised under the following headings: statement of purpose, research methodology used, results obtained;
- 4) a short essay written in English – no longer than two pages – which illustrates the reasons why the candidate wishes to attend the PhD Programme and describes his/her specific research interests (Statement of Research Interest).
- 5) any certification attesting to knowledge of the English language (TOEFL, Proficiency or other);

6) from zero to two letters of recommendation written by experts in the fields of research of the PhD Programme, indicating the public or private institution/organization he/she is affiliated with.

7) Master thesis and any scientific publications.

The Selection committee has the capacity to assign scores up to a total of 60 points in the evaluation of candidate qualifications, as follows:

- Academic and research record: from 0 to 30 points:

- study curriculum and relevance of exams taken and the subject of the Master thesis and relevance to the area of study of the PhD programme: from 0 to 15 points,

- publications, conference papers, certifications: from 0 to 5 points

- other qualifications (certificate of knowledge of English, letters of reference, and descriptions of specific research interests (Statement of Research Interest), periods of study abroad): from 0 to 10 points.

- Interview: from 0 to 30 points

It is necessary to present a valid ID card or a passport.

The interview will focus on the description of a hypothetical research project chosen by the candidate. The evaluation will focus on the scientific soundness of the project, feasibility and appropriateness with the PhD course.

Candidates obtaining a minimum of 15 points will be allowed to interview.

The list of candidates admitted to the interview and any variations in the methods and terms of the selection procedure will be announced publicly in a date between the July 18 and 19, 2016 on the University website at <http://www.unimore.it/didattica/doctorates.html> in the section relating to the PhD Programme in Models and methods for material and environmental sciences.

Candidates may opt to have their interview in English.

Once the qualifications and the interview have been assessed, the Committee will compile a merit-based ranking of candidates based on the scores awarded. Candidates obtaining a minimum score of 40/60 will be considered eligible.

Areas of the PhD Programme: The Course aims to train experts in advanced research methodologies in environmental and material sciences, in respect of the research fields of the teaching staff (<http://www.m3es.unimore.it/site/home.html>). The research doctor will be able to operate in one or more of the following fields: processes regulating the transfer of elements and compounds from geosphere to hydro- and biosphere forecasting; prevention and mitigation of natural risks; identification and optimal use of resources; study, conservation and appraisal of cultural assets; environmental impact of human activities; chemical sustainable strategies; preparation and characterization of materials with innovative functional properties; devices and methodologies for electrochemical sensing suitable to work in real systems; computational multi-scale strategies; chemometrics, multivariate analysis of signals and images.

Further information is available on the PhD Programme website at:

<http://www.m3es.unimore.it/site/home.html>

EXAM SCHEDULE

Interview in the presence: July 27, 2016, 9:00 am. Interviews could continue on July 28, 2016 at 9:00 am, should there be a high number of candidates,

The examination will take place in Room U03 of the Department of Chemical and Geological Sciences, Via Campi 213, Modena.

Interview via Skype (for candidates resident abroad): July 28, 2016, from 9:00 am to 1:00 pm and from 2:00 pm to 4:00 pm.

The examination will take place in Room U03 of the Department of Chemical and Geological Sciences, Via Campi 213, Modena.

8) PhD Programme in “MOLECULAR AND REGENERATIVE MEDICINE”

Places with scholarship: 5

Places without scholarship: 2

Reserved places for industrial doctorate: 1 employee of Chiesi Farmaceutici Spa, with registered offices in Parma, via Palermo 26/A

An extra place is reserved for a candidate already selected with specifically international mobility program in which the University of Modena and Reggio Emilia participates (Integrated self-assembled SWITCHable systems and materials: towards responsive organic electronics – a multi-site innovative training action" - Azione Marie Curie dell'Unione Europea).

Admission requirements: Italian second level degree (laurea specialistica, under D.M. 509/99 or laurea magistrale, under D.M. 207/04) or Italian degree obtained prior to D.M. 509/99 or equivalent qualification obtained abroad, in accordance with the provisions in art. 2 of this application procedure.

Selection Procedure: based on academic and research record and interview

The selection procedure is intended to establish the candidate's preparation and aptitude for carrying out research activities with respect to topics relating to the PhD Programme.

Except as provided by art. 3 of this application procedure, candidates may submit the following additional documents:

- 1) self-certification to prove that the degree has been conferred (if awarded by an Italian university), or Degree certificate (if awarded by a foreign university), with a list of exams taken and grades achieved in the first and second level degree;
- 2) curriculum vitae of the candidate's research and teaching activities written in Italian or English indicating university degree qualifications obtained and scientific experiences;
- 3) a summary of final thesis in Italian or English, or equivalent – minimum of three and maximum of six pages – organised under the following headings: statement of purpose, research methodology used, results obtained;
- 4) a short essay written in English – no longer than two pages – which illustrates the reasons why the candidate wishes to attend the PhD Programme and describes his/her specific research interests (Statement of Research Interest).
- 5) any certification attesting to knowledge of the English language (TOEFL, Proficiency or other);
- 6) any GRE (Graduate Record Examination) certificates.
- 7) any recommendation letters (between one and three) written by experts in the fields of research of the PhD Programme, indicating the public or private institution/organization he/she is affiliated with.

Candidates who meet the requirements (employees of the enterprise) and wish to apply primarily for the reserved place, must fill in and attach to the online application form the facsimile "Annex E2" of this call.

The Selection Commission will examine the presentation of the above documents for those who have expressed their interest in competing primarily for the reserved place.

The Selection Committee has the capacity to assign scores up to a total of 60 points in the evaluation of candidate qualifications, as follows:

- Curriculum studiorum: from 0 to 30 points,
- Curriculum professional experiences: from 0 to 15 points,
- Publications: from 0 to 10 points,
- Other qualifications: from 0 to 5 points.

Candidates awarded at least 40/60 in the assessment of academic and research record will be admitted to the interview.

The list of candidates admitted to the interview and any variations in the methods and terms of the selection procedure will be announced publicly in a date between the July 14 and 15, 2016 on the University website at <http://www.unimore.it/didattica/doctorates.html> in the section relating to the PhD Programme in Molecular and regenerative medicine.

Candidates may opt to have their interview in English.

The Interview will assess students' knowledge of molecular and cellular biology and their research skills both based on past experiences and of future expectations. Candidates will also be asked to read, translate and interpret an excerpt from a scientific article to assess their knowledge of the English language.

Candidates obtaining a minimum score of 40/60 on the interview will be considered eligible.

The reserved place for the industrial doctorate will be allocated to the candidate achieving the best ranking position among those who have applied primarily for the reserved place.

Areas of the PhD Programme: The Ph.D. Programme in Molecular and Regenerative Medicine focuses on research aimed at the identification and characterization of molecular mechanisms of diseases and the development of diagnostic and therapeutic approaches in the field of chemistry and regenerative medicine. The Programme teaches students how to develop an independent research project that addresses scientific questions to understand the molecular mechanisms underlying human diseases, as well as how to develop novel diagnostic tools and therapeutic approaches (stem cells, gene therapy, molecular modelling) for such industrial applications.

Further information is available from the PhD Programme website at:

<http://www.mrm.unimore.it/site/home.html>

EXAM SCHEDULE

Interview: July 21, 2016, 9:00 am. Interviews could continue on July 22, 2016 at 9:00 am, should there be a high number of candidates

The examination will take place in Room BSI 2 (Room 2N1.1) Scientific Library Interdepartmental (building MO19), via Campi 213/C, Modena.

9) PhD Programme in “NEUROSCIENCES” in cooperation with the University of Parma

Places with scholarship: 6

Places without scholarship: 2

Admission requirements: Italian second level degree (laurea specialistica, under D.M. 509/99 or laurea magistrale, under D.M. 207/04) or Italian degree obtained prior to D.M. 509/99 or equivalent qualification obtained abroad, in accordance with the provisions in art. 2 of this application procedure.

Selection Procedure: based on academic and research record, written test and interview

The selection procedure is intended to establish the candidate's preparation and aptitude for carrying out research activities with respect to topics relating to the PhD Programme.

Except as provided by art. 3 of this application procedure, candidates may submit the following additional documents:

Evaluation of qualification (60 points):

- 1) document certifying the list of exams and the scores obtained, up to a maximum of 10 points;
- 2) thesis, up to a maximum of 10 points;
- 3) publications, up to a maximum of 20 points;
- 4) synthesis of the research project (3 pages), up to a maximum of 10 points;
- 5) other qualifications (including specialties and experiences post-graduate), up to a maximum of 10 points.

Written examination (60 points):

The Written Exam for the issues related to Neurosciences is a written report on any of these topics:

- 1) The genesis of nerve impulses;
- 2) the synapse;
- 3) the reflexes;
- 4) molecular and cellular basis of signal transduction;
- 5) the motor system;
- 6) the visual system;
- 7) the somatosensory system;
- 8) neurobiology of language;
- 9) neurobiology of attention;
- 10) memory and learning.

The Written Exam for the issues pertaining to the Biology of Behaviour is a written report on any of these topics:

- 1) Individual and Social Learning;
- 2) Imprinting and development of behavior;
- 3) Genetic and epigenetic behavior;
- 4) Parental investment and sexual selection;
- 5) Social behavior, parental care and reproductive systems;
- 6) Aggressiveness and aggression and social hierarchies;
- 7) Hormones, neurotransmitters and behavior;
- 8) Selection of kinship and altruism;
- 9) Changes in behavior;
- 10) Communication and emotions.

At the beginning of the examination (which will last a maximum of one hour) are drawn two themes for Neuroscience and two themes for the Biology of Behaviour among those listed above, leaving the candidates the right to choose one to discuss.

Interview (60 points):

The Interview in the presence of the candidate will focus on the report of the Written Exam, the brief description of the candidate of his research project and the discussion of the candidate's motivations for attending the PhD in Neuroscience and its specific research interests. It will also check the verification of the English language and any foreign language optional declared by the applicant at the time of submitting the application

There is not a minimum score for admission of the doctoral candidates.

Areas of the PhD Programme: The course is activated by the University of Modena and Reggio Emilia in agreement with the University of Parma. The doctorate includes three thematic areas: 1) Integrated Human Neurosciences: clinical neuropharmacology, systems neuroscience, cognitive and social neuroscience, clinical neuroscience, cognitive psychology; 2) Basic Neurosciences: molecular and cellular neurobiology, neuropharmacology, neurophysiology of nerve transmission; 3) Biology of Behavior: ethological, psychobiological and behavioral study of development, social cognition, agonistic and sexual behaviors in animals and humans.

Further information is available from the PhD Programme website at:

<http://www.dottorato-neuroscienze.unimore.it>

EXAM SCHEDULE

Written examination: July 22, 2016, 9:00 am.

The examination will take place in Room H.5.1 Department of Biomedical, Metabolic and Neural Sciences (building MO15), via Campi 287, Modena.

Interview: July 25, 2016, 4:00 pm. Interviews could continue on July 26, 2016 at 9:00 am, should there be a high number of candidates.

The examination will take place in Room H.5.1 Department of Biomedical, Metabolic and Neural Sciences (building MO15), via Campi 287, Modena.

10) PhD Programme in “PHYSICS AND NANO SCIENCES”

Places with scholarship: 6*

Places without scholarship: 2

* One of the scholarships is financed by the project ERC Consolidator Grant 681,285 TAME- plasmons under the supervision of dr. Stefano Corni, project manager and member of the Teaching Committee. The scholarship will be tied to the performance of a research topic within the project ERC Consolidator Grant 681,285 TAME- Plasmons.

Admission requirements: Italian second level degree (laurea specialistica, under D.M. 509/99 or laurea magistrale, under D.M. 207/04) or Italian degree obtained prior to D.M. 509/99 or equivalent qualification obtained abroad, in accordance with the provisions in art. 2 of this application procedure.

Selection Procedure: based on academic and research record and interview

The selection procedure is intended to establish the candidate's preparation and aptitude for carrying out research activities with respect to topics relating to the PhD Programme.

Except as provided by art. 3 of this application procedure, candidates may submit the following additional documents:

1a) Self-certification to prove that the degree has been conferred (if awarded by an Italian university), or Degree certificate (if awarded by a foreign university), with a list of exams taken and grades achieved; students who have not yet completed the final degree examination, must submit a list of exams taken and grades achieved;

1b) List of research and teaching activities (curriculum vitae) indicating all the qualifications obtained. This can be written either in Italian or in English.

1c) A summary of the thesis/diploma work, from a minimum of three to a maximum of six pages, with the following headings: state of the art and interests of the topic, research methodology and results. This summary can be written either in Italian or in English.

1d) if any, certificates of knowledge of English language (TOEFL, Proficiency or others); certificate of Graduate Record Examination (GRE).

2) Letters of presentation (one to three) written by experts in the fields of this PhD course, indicating the public or private institution in which they serve as experts.

3) A brief (one/two pages) statement outlining the specific research interests and the objectives of the candidate and the reasons for attending the PhD programme in Physics and nano sciences at the University of Modena and Reggio Emilia.

For the evaluation the Board of Examiners, based on a comparative assessment of the documents submitted by the candidates, assigns a score up to a maximum of 60 points, according to the following criteria:

1) Previous experience of the candidate, up to a maximum of 30 points awarded taking into account:

- Curriculum studiorum, indicating the examinations passed during the previous courses (evaluation criteria: score of the final degree –if already achieved-, list of exams taken and grades received, degree of relevance of previous studies to this PhD course).

- List of activities (experiences and activities of internship, job opportunities, scholarships, grants, publications, training periods abroad, participation to Summer Schools and conferences).

- Summary of the thesis/diploma work-completed or in progress- (evaluation criteria: motivations and state of the art of the field, methods of investigation, results obtained).

- Knowledge of the English Language (documented by exams and certificates).

2) Independent evaluation of the potentialities of the candidate, up to a maximum of 10 points. To evaluate this, the following will be taken into account: letters of recommendation -from one to max three- experts who have had the opportunity to assess the candidate in research. Prizes and awards given to the candidate by external commissions. The letters of recommendation must be submitted by the candidate at the time of application.

3) Statement of Research Interest, divided into: Introduction, state-of-the-art, possible lines of development. The commission, based on this text, will evaluate the technical and scientific motivations and specific research interests of the candidate as well as their potentialities for the development of the PhD programme. Up to a maximum of 20 points.

After the assessment, the Commission shall prepare a ranking list based on the scores assigned to each candidate. Candidates who obtain a score lower than 40/60 will not be admitted to the interview and not considered eligible for admission to the course.

The list of candidates admitted to the interview and any variations in the methods and terms of the selection procedure will be announced publicly in a date between the August 1 and 2, 2016 on the University website at <http://www.unimore.it/didattica/doctorates.html> in the section relating to the PhD Programme in Physics and nano sciences.

Matters on which the interview will cover:

The interview is to clarify and verify the historical experience of the the applicant manner set out in the documentation submitted by the candidate, and its scientific interests and possible lines of development of his career within the possibilities offered by the doctoral course, as expressed by the candidate in the Statement of Research Interest.

Maximum score for the interview of 40 points.

Candidates who obtain a final score of less than 50/100 will not be eligible for admission to the course.

Areas of the PhD Programme: The Course is structured in two curricula: 1) Physics 2) Nanoscience and Nanotechnologies. The focus of the Course is on development and applications of advanced experimental and theoretical/computational methods for the study of matter and systems at the micro- and nano-scale. The Course has strongly interdisciplinary character, from physics to chemistry, biology and engineering. The students will take advantage of a lively international environment, with access to state-of-the-art experimental/computational facilities (synchrotrons, neutrons, advanced computing) and participation in major international projects and collaborations with the possibility of stages abroad.

Further information is available from the PhD website at:

<http://www.nano-phdschool.unimore.it/site/home/topics.html>

EXAM SCHEDULE

Interview in the presence: September 1, 2016, 9:00 am. Interviews could continue on September 2, 2016 at 9:00 am, should there be a high number of candidates,

The examination will take place in Room L 1.2 (ex room F) of the Department of Physics, Informatics and Mathematics, Via Campi 213/a, Modena

Interview via Skype (for candidates resident abroad): September 1, 2016, from 3:00 pm to 6:00 pm. Interviews could continue on September 2, 2016 from 9:00 am to 12:00 am, should there be a high number of candidates,

The examination will take place in Room L 1.2 (ex room F) of the Department of Physics, Informatics and Mathematics, Via Campi 213/a, Modena.

11) PhD Programme in “HUMAN SCIENCES” (Main centre: Reggio Emilia)

Places with scholarship: 7

Places without scholarship: 2

Reserved places:

- 1 with apprenticeship contract for advanced training and research of three years financed by the Social Cooperative TICE Onlus for work in early intervention for students with autism and special educational needs (the trainees will be hired at the company plant located in via Matteotti n. 45, Rubiera (RE), to cover an operating position, following the regulations set in the collective labour agreement on what concerns the terms for the Social Cooperative sector to which the cooperative belongs);
- 2 for candidates with scholarships provided by foreign States;
- 1 without scholarship for a candidate with a degree awarded by a foreign University.

Admission requirements: Italian second level degree (laurea specialistica, under D.M. 509/99 or laurea magistrale, under D.M. 207/04) or Italian degree obtained prior to D.M.

509/99 or equivalent qualification obtained abroad, in accordance with the provisions in art. 2 of this application procedure.

Selection procedure: There are three different selection procedures for this PhD Programme, depending on the type of available places. Candidates interested to more than one selection procedures must submit the application form and a fee of € 25.00 for each selection procedure.

The selection procedure is intended to establish the candidate's preparation and aptitude for carrying out research activities in areas related to the PhD Programme.

Except as provided by art. 3 of this application procedure, candidates may submit the following additional documents:

1) self-certification to prove that the degree has been conferred (if awarded by an Italian university), or Degree certificate (if awarded by a foreign university), with a list of exams taken and grades achieved;

2) curriculum vitae of one's research and teaching activities written in Italian or English indicating university degree qualifications obtained;

3) a copy of the degree dissertation in electronic form, degree obtained prior to D.M. 509/99 or second level degree ("laurea specialistica/magistrale") or equivalent degree (if obtained abroad), or an abstract of the degree dissertation;

4) a short essay written in English – no longer than two pages – which illustrates the reasons why the candidate wishes to attend the PhD Programme and describes his/her specific research interests (Statement of Research Interest).

5) any certification attesting to knowledge of the English language (TOEFL, CAE/Proficiency or other) or other languages, indicating the level achieved by the candidate.

Along with the application, all candidates are to present a research project, in Italian or English, in one of the subject areas of the PhD Programme. The project will be a description – between four and ten pages in length – with: aim of the research, literature review, materials and methods, results, references. The project will not be binding for the Teaching Committee in terms of the possible attribution of a thesis title.

With reference to selection procedure no. 1 mentioned below, candidates that intend to apply primarily for reserved place with apprenticeship contract for advanced training and research, must fill in and attach to the online application form the facsimile "Annex E1" of this call.

With reference to selection procedure no. 2 mentioned below, candidates must attach documentation to the online application proving that they hold a scholarship or that the application procedure for the awarding of the scholarship is underway.

1) Main selection (for places with scholarships, places without scholarship and reserved place with apprenticeship contract for advanced training and research): based on academic and research record and interview

The Selection Committee has the capacity to assign scores up to a total of 60 points in the evaluation of candidate qualifications, as follows:

- Curriculum: from 0 to 10 points,
- Master thesis/abstract and other qualifications: from 0 to 10 points,
- Publications: from 0 to 10 points,
- Research project: from 0 to 30 points.

Candidates will be accepted for interview where the evaluation of qualifications presented has a score of at least 40 points out of the 60 available. A list of the candidates admitted to interview, and any variation in the selection procedure, will be published between July 7 and 8, 2016 on the University web site at page <http://www.unimore.it/didattica/doctorates.html>, in the section relating to the PhD Programme in Human Sciences.

For the interview, the Examiners may award a score of up to 60 points. Candidates may opt to have their interview in English. The interview, as well as the candidate's knowledge of the English language and of another language the candidate may have indicated in the application, will focus on the scientific methodologies used for the research project proposed by candidates and on the objectives the project aims to achieve.

A pass is achieved where candidates are awarded a minimum score of 40/60.

The Selection Committee will decide whether to admit or not only those who have applied primarily for the reserved places based on the following qualifications:

- Documentation attesting experience and interest in early intervention for students with autism and Special Educational Needs.

Eligibility of students for the reserved places will not affect the evaluation of candidates but regards solely the allocation of such places; the reserved places will be allocated to the candidates reaching the best ranking position among those who have applied primarily for the reserved places.

2) Selection for places reserved to candidates with scholarship of foreign Countries: based on academic and research record

The Selection Committee has the capacity to assign scores up to a total of 60 points in the evaluation of candidate qualifications, as follows:

- Curriculum: from 0 to 10 points,
- Master thesis/abstract and other qualifications: from 0 to 10 points,
- Publications: from 0 to 10 points,
- Research project: from 0 to 30 points.

The Selection Committee will check the presentation of documentation proving that candidates hold a scholarship or that the application procedure for the awarding of the scholarship is underway.

3) Selection for place reserved to candidates with foreign degree: based on academic and research record

The Selection Committee has the capacity to assign scores up to a total of 60 points in the evaluation of candidate qualifications, as follows:

- Curriculum: from 0 to 10 points,
- Master thesis/abstract and other qualifications: from 0 to 10 points,
- Publications: from 0 to 10 points,
- Research project: from 0 to 30 points.

Once the qualifications have been assessed, the Committee will compile three merit-based rankings of candidates based on the scores awarded. The lists of admitted students will be issued following the conditions set in the art. 6 of this call. Candidates who applied for more than one selection procedure and are successfully ranked in more than one list can enrol on a single ranking only.

Areas of the PhD Programme: Comparative Language and Culture Studies; Narratology and Literature; Language Learning and Understanding; Philosophy of Language; History of Ideas; Sciences of Religion; Historical and Political Science; Contemporary History; Science Teaching; Education; Museum-based Education; Cross-cultural Communication. Selection Procedure: based on academic and research record

The selection procedure is intended to establish the candidate’s preparation and aptitude for carrying out research activities in areas related to the PhD programme.

Except as provided by art. 3 of this application procedure, candidates may submit the following additional documents:

- 1) self-certification to prove that the degree has been conferred (if awarded by an Italian university), or Degree certificate (if awarded by a foreign university), with a list of exams taken and grades achieved.
- 2) curriculum vitae of research and teaching activities, indicating clearly and concisely what candidate has studied, skills acquired (languages, knowledge of computers, use of complex instrumentation, etc.) including any official certifications he/she may have. The document may be written in Italian or English and must include the exact name and nature of degrees possessed, publications, if applicable, and contributions to conferences /congresses;
- 3) a summary of final thesis in Italian or English, or equivalent – minimum of three and maximum of six pages – organised under the following headings: statement of purpose, research methodology used, results obtained;
- 4) a short essay written in English – no longer than two pages – which illustrates the reasons why the candidate wishes to attend the PhD Programme and describes his/her specific research interests (Statement of Research Interest) in relation to one of the research areas of the PhD Programme (available from the PhD Programme website at: <http://www.steba.unimore.it/> under “Research topics”).
- 5) any recommendation letters written by experts in the field of research of the PhD Programme, indicating the public or private institution the expert is affiliated with.

Candidates who meet the requirements (employees of the enterprise) and wish to apply primarily for the reserved place, must fill in and attach to the online application form the facsimile "Annex E2" of this call.

The Selection Commission will examine the presentation of the above documents for those who have expressed their interest in competing primarily for the reserved places.

The Selection Committee has the capacity to assign scores up to a total of 60 points in the evaluation of candidate qualifications, as follows:

- Curriculum: from 0 to 30 points,
- Master thesis: from 0 to 10 points,
- Publications: from 0 to 10 points,
- Other qualifications: from 0 to 10 points.

Once the qualifications have been assessed, the Committee will compile a merit-based ranking of candidates based on the scores awarded.

Candidates obtaining a minimum score of 40/60 will be considered eligible.

The reserved place for the industrial doctorate will be allocated to the candidates reaching the best ranking position among those who have applied primarily for the reserved place.

Areas of the PhD Programme: The course is organized in two curricula (Science, Technology and Agricultural Biotechnology, Life Sciences, Technology and Biotechnology). Further information is available on the website of the PhD course at: <http://www.steba.unimore.it>
